

What educational goals did you hope to reach by assigning your students an immersive-based activity in your _____ course?

How did this immersive activity help your students learn more about the topics of the course than a traditional project?

How did working with IMEX Lab help facilitate the delivery of this project to your students?

In what ways have your experiences with your _____ project shaped your plans for future assignments in this - and other - courses?